PRESS RELEASE

The Mount Prospect Police Department's Newest Officer Graduates from Police Academy

Officer David Carlson

Officer David Carlson returned to join the ranks of the Mount Prospect Police Department after successfully graduating from the University of Illinois Police Training Institute on December 22, 2011.

The Police Training Institute's Basic Law Enforcement course is a twelve week program that meets the minimum training requirements of the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board for all police officers in the State of Illinois. After completing an 18 week long field training program, Officer Carlson will assume solo patrol duties with the Mount Prospect Police Department.

The Mount Prospect Police Department welcomes Officer David Carlson and congratulates him on his successful completion of the police academy.
